IN HONOR OF CISSI LANIER

A small but hungry crowd enjoyed potluck lunch on March 3rd Sunday. Nancy Belford had beautifully decorated the fellowship hall.

Pictured at right is Al DeLoach as he correctly positions the American Flag at Linden Fuel Center. Al is the United States veteran who makes sure that this Flag is moved to half staff when appropriate.

LUMC youth and leaders assembled cleaning buckets for flood victims. Kristen Clayton and Dominique Sauer collected money from worship attendees on 3rd Sunday. Kristen and Dominique along with Megan Milloway, Kaylin Kluge, Desiree McDuffie, Dana McDuffie, and Christina Belford are pictured .

Dominique Sauer placed 1st in high jump with 5-4 at Perritte-Mustangs Relays. She placed 2nd in 100 hurdles with 15.86 and is the Northeast Texas varsity girls leader in these events.
